Re: Shure Incorporated, et al. v. ClearOne, Inc., C.A. No. 19-1343-RGA-CJB

Dear Judge Andrews and Judge Burke:

I write on behalf of Plaintiffs Shure Incorporated and Shure Acquisition Holdings, Inc. (“Shure”) to advise the Court that Shure has elected to withdraw certain claims in order to streamline and narrow the issues for the jury trial scheduled to begin on November 1, 2021. Specifically, Shure will not assert claims at trial regarding ClearOne’s alleged false advertising under the Lanham Act, violation of the Delaware Deceptive Trade Practices Act, tortious interference, or unfair competition under common law (D.I. 64, Counts II, III, IV, and V).

We believe that Shure’s decision to streamline the issues for trial renders moot Defendant ClearOne’s Motion for Partial Summary Judgment of No Liability for Certain Alleged False Statements (D.I. 449).

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ Alexandra M. Joyce
