Every family member of Herschel Walker asked him not to run for office, because we all knew (some of) his past. Every single one. He decided to give us the middle finger and air out all of his dirty laundry in public, while simultaneously lying about it.

Herschel Walker lied about basic facts of his life. So we definitely can't trust him to serve Georgia in the Senate.

- X Herschel Walker lies about owning companies, working in law enforcement, graduating from college, and even about his secret children.¹
- X He also has a horrible history of violence towards women, including holding a razor to his ex-wife's throat, stalking and threatening multiple women, and even telling his ex-wife he would "blow [her] fing brains out."²
- X If he can't even tell the truth about his own life, how can we trust him to put our health care, our Social Security, or our wallets over his donors?

How can you trust Herschel Walker when his family can't even trust him?
